

Prenger Family Scholarship Information

Purpose:

Prenger Foods, in business since 1960, has employed area high school students at each of its locations beginning with the first grocery store in Centralia. In honor of the dedication necessary to manage school and work, and in recognition of the strong work ethic set out by the company's founders, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Prenger, the Prenger Family Scholarship recognizes graduates with scholarships in the amount of $500.

Specifications:

Applications for the Prenger Family Scholarship may be picked up in the High School Guidance Department beginning in January.

Candidates include male or female eligible graduates.

This non-renewable scholarship in the amount of $500 will be awarded annually to applicants entering a vocational or academic program of study.

Money will be awarded to the student who presents proof of enrollment to the SHS guidance counselor.

Completed applications should be returned to the Sturgeon High School Guidance Department by April 15.

Please ask your guidance counselor to forward any questions regarding the scholarship.
