

Dennis Riordan Memorial Scholarship

Columbia Entertainment Company proudly presents the Dennis Riordan Memorial Scholarship to outstanding high school students in the performing arts who are interested in pursuing a career in theatre. The scholarship is worth $1,000 which will be sent directly to the student's choice of college or university. Half of the scholarship will be sent for the first semester of their freshman year and half of the scholarship will be sent for the second half of their freshmen year. This scholarship is designed to help defer college expenses such as tuition and/or room and board.

Any high school student interested in applying for this scholarship should contact their high school guidance counselor for an application form. These applications will be forward to Don Mueller so the Columbia Entertainment Company Scholarship Committee can make a final selection. The deadline to apply for this scholarship is February 15, 2018.
